

Website Developer

Job Description

Custom design and development of high-end websites and digital marketing tools. Use numerous developing, programming and coding software products to create, edit and maintain quality websites and business tools.

Technical Knowledge

- Basic coding knowledge - Must be skilled in (SQL), HTML (5) and CSS (3). JavaScript and JQuery Helpful
- Website software knowledge and skills - Must be skilled in WordPress. Knowledge of Magento, Joomla and Drupal a plus. Adobe Dreamweaver and/or custom HTML software a plus
- Graphics or photo editing software - Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop and other Adobe programs a plus
- Applications - Experience with E-Commerce, Mobile Design Site modules, Online Databases and CRM a plus
- FTP, SSH and Linux skills a bonus

Duties

- Key information into software programs to create layouts for client or supervisor
- Determine the message the design should portray
- Choose applications and designs for the site
- Write and edit code and mark up for the site
- Integrate graphics and video into the website
- Install the basic framework of the site and test and debug in all platforms, mobile, browser, and more
- Select graphics, colors, images, text style, and layout
- Construct and debug applications for website tools or modules
- Keep site updated with monthly maintenance, component, software, plug-ins installs and upgrades
- Install CMS software on servers; create, edit and repair databases
- Repair website issues as they arise
- Research new software or design concepts
- Other Duties

Education Requirements

High School a must. Certification or Degree in Arts/Design a plus

Work Schedules/Style

Sub-Contract Part time Employment requiring W9 Form, Sub Contractor Agreement and Non-Disclosure Agreement, background check will be performed; a drug test may be required/requested during employment

Visit webnmoore.com/apply to fill out our application, and e-mail your resume and portfolio/work samples to apply@webnmoore.com

